DEFENDANT'S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR
LEAVE TO FILE FIRST AMENDED ANSWER

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

COMES NOW Nationwide Housing Systems, Inc. ("Nationwide"), Defendant in the above-entitled and numbered cause, and, pursuant to Rule 15(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Scheduling Order of July 7, 2000, files this its Unopposed Motion for Leave to File First Amended Answer, respectfully showing the Court as follows:

1. On March 27, 2000, Plaintiff Equal Employment Opportunity Commission filed its Complaint and Jury Trial Demand on behalf of James Stovall, alleging that Nationwide engaged in unlawful conduct under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act.

Nationwide timely filed Defendant's Original Answer on June 2, 2000, specifically responding the allegations in the Complaint and asserting various affirmative defenses.

2. Plaintiff submitted its Initial Disclosures to Defendant on July 14, 2000. Plaintiff commensurately produced to Nationwide a copy of the investigative file compiled by the EEOC in connection with its processing of the underlying discrimination charge filed by Mr. Stovall. The investigative file contained information concerning the conciliation process undertaken by the EEOC and the settlement agreement verbally reached between the parties.

3. Based on information reflected in the investigative file, which was not previously known to Nationwide, Nationwide seeks to assert the additional affirmative defense of waiver and release. Therefore, Nationwide requests that it be granted leave to file Defendant's First Amended Answer, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and fully incorporated by reference. Nationwide further requests the Court to direct that such pleading be filed with the other papers in this cause without further action on the part of Nationwide.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Defendant Nationwide Housing Systems, Inc. respectfully prays that the Court grant this Unopposed Motion for Leave to File First Amended Answer; that the Court direct the District Clerk to file Defendant's First Amended Answer to Plaintiff's Complaint and Jury Trial Demand among the other papers in this case without further action on the part of Nationwide; and that Nationwide be awarded such other relief, general or special, at law or in equity, to which it may be justly entitled.

Respectfully submitted,

DEFENDANT'S FIRST AMENDED ANSWER

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

COMES NOW Nationwide Housing Systems, Inc. ("Nationwide"), Defendant in the above-entitled and numbered cause, and files this its First Amended Answer to Plaintiff's Complaint and Jury Trial Demand (the "Complaint"), respectfully stating as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

In response to the unnumbered paragraph immediately preceding Paragraph 1 of the Complaint, to the extent necessary, Nationwide denies the allegations therein and denies that Plaintiff is entitled to any of the relief sought in this action.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Nationwide admits that Plaintiff purports to bring a cause of action pursuant to the statutory provisions cited in Paragraph 1 of the Complaint, but Nationwide denies that this suit is properly authorized or maintainable against it under any of the statutory provisions cited by Plaintiff.

2. Nationwide admits that the conduct upon which Plaintiff's claims are based allegedly occurred within the geographic jurisdiction of the Court.

PARTIES

3. Nationwide admits that Plaintiff purports to bring this action pursuant to the statutory provisions cited in Paragraph 3 of the Complaint but denies that this suit is properly authorized or maintainable against it under any of the statutory provisions cited by Plaintiff.

4. Nationwide admits that, during the period relevant to Plaintiff's claim, it was a Texas corporation with operations in the State of Texas and that it employed at least 20 employees. Except as specifically admitted herein, Nationwide denies the allegations in Paragraph 4 of the Complaint.

5. Nationwide admits that it is engaged in an industry affecting commerce within the meaning of the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended ("ADEA").

CONCILIATION

6. Nationwide admits that the parties engaged in conciliation efforts but denies that it engaged in any unlawful employment practices.

STATEMENT OF CLAIMS

7. Nationwide denies the allegations in Paragraph 7 of the Complaint.

8. Nationwide denies the allegations in Paragraph 8 of the Complaint.

9. Nationwide denies the allegations in Paragraph 9 of the Complaint.

10. Except as expressly admitted above, Nationwide denies each and every allegation in the Complaint and demands strict proof thereof.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Nationwide denies that Plaintiff is entitled to any of the relief sought under Paragraphs A-F of its Prayer for Relief.

JURY TRIAL DEMAND

Plaintiff's demand for a jury trial requires no response by Nationwide.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Plaintiff is not entitled to recovery based on the cause of action asserted in the Complaint because Plaintiff fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff is not entitled to recovery based on the cause of action asserted in the Complaint because Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the applicable statute of limitations and/or administrative filing deadlines.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff is not entitled to recovery based on the cause of action asserted in the Complaint because James Stovall was not qualified for the position of General Manager.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff is not entitled to recovery based on the cause of action asserted in the Complaint because each action taken or decision made by Nationwide in relation to James Stovall was done to serve and in furtherance of legitimate, non-discriminatory business purposes and/or, if an improper motive played a part in any action taken or decision made by Nationwide in relation to Plaintiff, the same action or decision would have been taken or made without regard to such motive.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff is not entitled to recovery based on the cause of action asserted in the Complaint because James Stovall has failed to adequately mitigate damages as required by law.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff is not entitled to recovery based on the cause of action asserted in the Complaint because Nationwide's actions were not willful within the meaning of the ADEA.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff is not entitled to recovery based on the cause of action asserted in the Complaint because, as part of a settlement agreement, any and all claims against Nationwide related to the conduct referenced in the Complaint were waived and released.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Defendant Nationwide Housing Systems, Inc. prays that Plaintiff take nothing upon final hearing or trial hereof; that this suit be dismissed on the merits with prejudice to the refiling of same; and that Nationwide be awarded its attorneys' fees and costs of court, together with such other and further relief, whether general or special, at law or in equity, to which it may be justly entitled.

Respectfully submitted,
